

Temple Beth Tzedek
RABBI ISAAC KLEIN
SCHOLAR-IN-RESIDENCE WEEKEND

Presents a weekend with
RABBI JEFFREY SUMMIT

- Research Professor in the Department of Music and Judaic Studies at Tufts University.
- He is a Senior Consultant for Hillel International directing the project “Living Our Values”.
- He holds emeritus appointments at Tufts as Emeritus Neubauer, Executive Director of Tufts Hillel and Emeritus Jewish Chaplain.
- He is the author of two songs that have CD’s, one nominated for a GRAMMY award and one awarded Best World Music CD .
- His research focuses on music and identity, spiritual experience, advocacy, & the impact of technology on the transmission of tradition

Thursday night, May 30, 2019 — 7:30 pm at TBT

Cabaret on the Edge of the World: PERFORMING IN THE SHADOW OF THE HOLOCAUST

Multi-media presentation on the cabaret performances in the ghettos and concentration camps with programs of satire, social commentary, popular songs of romance and longing as well as songs of resistance.

Dessert reception — reservations required

Friday night, May 31, 2019 — 6:00 pm services

The Meaning of our Melodies: MUSIC AND IDENTITY IN CONTEMPORARY JUDAISM

Why do Jews have such strong feelings about the music we use in Prayer? Through this music, these Jews define and re-define their relationship to the continuity of Jewish tradition & the realities of American Life.

Dinner following — reservations required

Shabbat morning, June 1, 2019 — 9:00 am

Singings God’s Words: RELIGIOUS EXPERIENCE, CHANT & SACRED TEXT

How & why a growing number of American Jews see the public chanting of Biblical texts as one of the most authentic expressions of their religious identity.

Kiddush following services open to community

Minhah services and Se’udah Shlisheet, June 1, 2019 — 8:15 pm

Everyone is welcome, Rabbi Summit will not lead a specific discussion

Sunday morning, June 2, 2019 — 9:30 am

Coffee, Music and Inter-religious Harmony in Eastern Uganda

The Abayudaya (Jewish People) of Uganda set out to build productive, respectful relationships with the Muslim & Christian neighbors. In Namonyoni sub-county, outside of the town of Mhale, 586 Muslim, Jewish & Christian farmers joined together to form the Peace Kawomera (Delicious Peace) Fair Trade Coffee Cooperative.

Continental Breakfast Open to the Community — reservations required

FOR RESERVATIONS & PAYMENT CALL TEMPLE OFFICE — 838-3232 by May 24, 2019

Shaabat Dinner: Adults $24 Teens 14-16 yrs , $12.50 Youth 6-13 yrs, $7.50

Children 5 years & under — Free (All prices include NYS sales tax)

Please notify office of any special dietary needs

Cancellations less than 24 hours in advance will be responsible for payment

While there is NO charge for Shabbat Kiddush & Se’udah Shlisheet

And Sunday Breakfast, for planning purposes, please let office know if attending.

TEMPLE BETH TZEDEK