

Rabbi Benjamin Herman to Visit

Rabbi Ben Herman will visit TBT March 22-24 as a candidate for the pulpit. The Rabbi Search Committee is eager for us to get to know him over Shabbat. There also will be Q&A sessions, indicated in the schedule below (livestream will be available – link on the website). We encourage you to meet Rabbi Herman.

Ben Herman is currently the Senior Rabbi at Jericho Jewish Center. He received a BA in History, Hebrew and Jewish Studies from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and Rabbinic Ordination with an MA in Jewish Education from JTS.

Rabbi Herman became a rabbi out of his interest in people, his passion for Jewish life and his desire to help Judaism blossom, flourish and grow within a community. His vision is premised on Every Member Counts, and his goal is to build upon the successes of a congregation to ensure that it is a vibrant place where everyone is welcome and appreciated for who s/he is and what s/he brings to their congregational family.

Rabbi Herman and his wife Karina are parents to 3 year old daughter Ariela and 3 month old daughter Leora. His family and he are excited to get to know first-hand everything that makes Beth Tzedek the vibrant, warm and welcoming place that it is.
